

The Federation of Behavioral, Psychological, and Cognitive Sciences
&
The Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology present a science forum on:

Work and Aging

Psychological-Organizational Science Contributions to the Management of an Aging Age-Diverse Workforce

Friday, March 14th, 2008, 9:00am – 5:00pm
Union Station

50 Massachusetts Ave., NE, Washington DC
Columbus Club Meeting Space

(entrance located on the northeast side of the Main Hall of Union Station, across from Thunder Grill)

Agenda

There is time available after each presentation for questions and/or discussion.
All are encouraged to actively participate!

- 8:30am Registration; coffee and tea
- 9:00am Barbara Wanchisen, Executive Director, Federation of Behavioral, Psychological and Cognitive Sciences
Welcome and Opening Remarks
- 9:10am Kurt Kraiger, Colorado State University
Moderator and Introductory Remarks
- 9:20am Ruth Kanfer, Georgia Institute of Technology
The World of Work in the 21st Century: Older Workers, New Work Roles, and Age-Diverse Workplaces
- 10:00am Jeanette N. Cleveland, Pennsylvania State University
Age Diversity and Human Resources Practices
- 10:40am Break
- 11:00am Elissa L. Perry, Teachers College, Columbia University
Inter-Generational and Age Differences at Work
- 11:40am Janet Barnes-Farrell, University of Connecticut
Managing Work Role Transitions, Knowledge Transfer, and Retirement
- 12:20pm Lunch (complimentary)
- 1:20pm Deborah Russell, American Association of Retired Persons
Tapping the Vast Human Capital of Older Workers
- 2:00pm Amber Story, National Science Foundation
Funding Opportunities at the National Science Foundation
- 2:40pm Break
- 3:00pm Jonathan W. King, National Institute on Aging
NIA Perspectives and Opportunities on Work and Aging
- 3:40pm TBD
- 4:20pm Ruth Kanfer, Georgia Institute of Technology
General Discussion and Closing
- 5:10pm Interested in continuing the conversation initiated during the forum? Join us at Thunder Grill for a social hour!
Thunder Grill is located right across the Main Hall from the Columbus Club. We'll be gathering in the bar area.

Contact us at federation@fbpcs.org or 202.336.5920 to RSVP or request more information.